

Dina Moore

504 Washington Ave Oldsmar, Florida 34677

Mobile: 813 381 0687 Email: drivera6@mail.usf.edu

Personal Profile

I am a highly motivated returning student, eager to continue and pursue new advances in Archaeology and Forensic science as well as build my resources within the local historic preservation communities, increasing social awareness while participating in their constant evolution.

Academic Qualifications

GRE (Taken: 10/29): Verbal Reasoning 156/Quantitative Reasoning 143 2013

Bachelors of Arts in Anthropology, with minors in Philosophy (GPA 3.5)
University of South Florida, Tampa 2006-2010

- Certificate in Latin and Caribbean Studies
- Undergraduate Honors Thesis advisors Dr. Himmelgreen, Dr. L. Collins
- Archaeological Field School with Dr. Pluckhahn (Summer 2010)

Global Perspectives Study, Greece/Turkey
Lee University, Cleveland TN 2006

- Sites in Akrotiri, Cannakale, Knossos, Ephesus among others

Associates of Arts in Social Studies, (GPA 3.75)
Hillsborough Community College, Tampa 2004-2006

- Member of the National Honors Society

Work Experience

Voluntary Experience

Wheeldon Island Preserve

- Park restoration

Yulee Sugar Mill Historical Society,

- Review and report on 3d Laser Imaging for Historic preservation

Chinsegut Hill Historical Society

- Photographic survey for Preservation

The Mill Museum and Cafe,

- Staff, Bo's Blues and BBQ Charity function

Temple of the Earth Gathering,

- Staff, fire tender

Personal Skills

Strong research and evidence based practice skills

Fluent use of digital media and methodology

Able to work individually or within a group

Versed in Microsoft Office as well as Open Office

Proficient in the use of social media for information distribution and data gathering

References

Available upon requests

Personal

PADI Open Water Certified